9. New Business

1. 2027 State Shoot Determination

Motion by Kevin to temporarily suspend the rule barring proxy votes for this meeting only. Second by Mike. Motion passed unanimously.

- State Sporting Clays – Bids were received from Caribou and Hunts Point
- State FITASC/Super Sporting – Bids were received from Wild Marsh, Hunts Point and So. St. Paul
- State 5-stand/Smallbore – Bids were received from So. St. Paul, Hunts Point, and Shooters (at Horse & Hunt)

Ballots were handed out for voting for the state shoots for 2027. Votes were tallied and Scott announced the winners:

- The 2027 State Sporting Clays Championship goes to Caribou
- The 2027 State FITASC/Super Sporting goes to Wild Marsh
- The 2027 State 5-stand/Smallbore goes to Shooters

2. Hunts Point request for maximum of $5,000 to support youth shooter participation during the 2025 Minnesota State Championship.

Todd and Garrett described the proposal to award youth shooters 17 and younger 50% of their registration fee for just the main event, up to $5,000, which would cover the first 45 shooters who register.

Motion by Garrett that Hunts Point receive a maximum of $5,000 to support youth shooters age 17 or under participating in the 2025 Minnesota State Championship by paying 50% of their entry for the main event with Hunts Point providing a communications plan to the MSC as a courtesy by the end of the week, with the MSC board responsible for tracking the shooters who participated. Second by Rick. Motion passed 6-3.

In addition, Gregg Wolf has graciously offered to donate a flat of shells to all registered shooters 17 and under who shoot the main event.

3. Other – Shooters asked for approval for a shoot at the Horse and Hunt Club August 1-3 for a North Central Regional warmup. Motion to approve by Nate. Second by Kevin. Motion approved unanimously.

Scott announced which members are up for re-election and asked if they would like to run for re-election, in preparation for the election at the State Shoot.

Rick asked the status of the raffle ticket sales. An additional 50 tickets will be given to Horse and Hunt since they sold their first 50.

Dennis will write a check for the raffle permit this week; Garrett will deliver the paperwork to Dennis.

10. Adjournment - Motion by Dylan to adjourn. Second by Garrett. Motion approved unanimously. The meeting was adjourned by President Scott Davis at 7:07 pm.
